Yes, its those rooms on the fourth floor with old couches, and murals that cover the walls in wild colors.

Some believe that SWS is only for "weirdos", or extra privileged students, but that is simply not the case. SWS strives to be unique, a place that offers a different learning experience, a place where motivated students take control in the classroom and speak freely about issues which concern or frighten them.

If you journeyed up the stairs, and perhaps sat in on an English class, (an SWS specialty) you might hear a discussion of Hamlet turn into a discussion of puberty. You could also hear Beth (English teacher) recount hilarious episodes of her childhood in Plano, Texas.

SWS believes the key to understanding is participation, democracy, and intent listening to others read their papers, and express their views. One should never be afraid to ask a question, or bring up a topic for discussion.

The backbone of SWS is Town Meeting where all decisions are made for SWS by the students, and the staff. It is completely democratic, and all are free to speak. We are a close community, and live from the different personalities, and backgrounds of our students. It is always an interesting day if you are upstairs.

Well, we did it. WE made it to the state tournament. We weren't sure how our season was going to be, but we ended up surpassing people's expectations. We made a lot of memories along the way, too. Our season started out getting stranded in Framingham watching the cheerleaders. We tried so many times to do our cheer (When I say . . .), but it never worked: Somebody Go. Our excellent singing vices showed through on our bus rides. We all know Spanish now thanks to Carla and Carmen. "Hey, who's leading stretching?" We had our ups and downs, but our game to remember was the Milford game, with our amazing fans. Our skills may not have been as good as in the past but we all played together, as a team, and we pulled it off!!

Thank you guys for a great season. Thanks also to Ms. Lewis. Good luck next year.

Love,

Sarah and Carla

Boys Soccer

Well we had a fairly disappointing season Nuff said As our strident leader once said, "You guys are three things. pathetic pathetic, and worse than pathetic" (Thanks for the positive reinforcement coach, 'preciate it.) But we did have a pretty good time, especially those of us that came to dinner (Who cares about tipping the waitress, right Butch?)

Anyway the following are just a couple of senior quotes to remember us by. And to you underclassmen — We are sorry that you have to live in our shadow

Nick "1500" Y — "I'm not shaving until we win a game." Sorry Nick Ben "Wild man" P — "I'm gonna take that kid out next time I see him"

Vald " " — Say that again Vald?

Edek "Froman" — "Guyz I vassn't awffsides."

Kenny "Orchestra" C. — 'Hey Kenny will you shut up for a while?'

Ariel "Froman no more" S. — "Atta way to kill a good joker Rel."

Maydad "Judy" C. — "C'mon guys, kick and run might work if we try it."

Jeremy "Soccer is my real passion" S. — "no really, I am injured . . But I'll still be at all the games."

Adam "Flayva" G. — "Ya know I'm bustin' the cabbage-patch after #6 . Flobee."

Adam "Wolfman" W — "Coach, tell your players to stop playing like animals."

Ohad "Smiley" C. — "I'm gonna quit today, or maybe tomorrow . . ."

Jason "Donnie's Ball" G. — "I guarantee you we win 6 or 7 games, how much you wanna bet?"

Soccer team word jumble . . . agbodocnkotrowo

Good stuff cheap.

Girls Soccer

It's an average day at practice, and at around 3:00, half the team begins its daily joke session, we mean running season You can hear someone beginning to sing "Victory" and just as we get into our circle, Jill comes running out with cleats in hand yelling, "Oh no, I missed the lap again " On the sideline, all the injured people, the other half of our team, are complaining. Jane tells Emily S. "If it isn't my right knee . . " and Beth says, "It's my left."

In the circle Kate and Amy start discussing tomorrow's game (when we know somebody will wear the wrong shorts) "Yeah she's good " Amy states. "But I could take her." Yoanna runs by and yells, "Come on you guys," as Val sticks her tongue out In the distance above all others we can hear Jenny and Lisa singing one of their made up songs. Abby and Abby are talking: Abby Fr. says, "I am not even going to be here next year," and Abby Fo. says, "Jason." Kendra is brushing her hair, and Gayle is sporting the incredible shrinking ponytail. Emily G. and Jean are warming up together in goal; Emily G "My uuad." Jean "My leg." Spaghetti tries to start a drill but the only people who are listening are Jaime, Jenny P., and Emily D. A few wrestling matches start, and then — like a chorus — the girls sing together.

"World Cup," Mr. Coombs groans .

Thanks for a great season.
We love you.

We had a shaky start, with an 0-5 record, but we improved because of the addition of talented new runners. Once in shape, our team became stronger, leading to victories in our Ist four out of five meets. Both the boys and girls teams ended up with respectable 4-6 records. Good Luck to the girls team, whose entire squad will be returning next year. We wish the team next year luck, and thanks everyone for your hard work and dedication. Special Thanks to Coach Dave Counts for his enthusiasm and patience throughout the season.

This year was a new beginning for the girls swim team. New coaches, new expectations, and many new swimmers. But the team carried on the old tradition of spirit and friendship. The spirit could never be beat no matter what the score was. We had an exciting one point win over Framingham in which every one played a part. Whether in the pool or on the deck, our hard work paid off. Every swimmer did their all time best by the end of the season. Besides all the work there was a great deal of fun too! Phycho Crasher, Initiation, I Touch Myself, Swim-a-thon, Route 9 Peep-Show, Ryan: our #1 fan, Jelly Roles, Bus Stories, Listerine commercial song, Encore cliches, ear infections, Food!

We Love You,

Basketball Cheerleading
It was a long season, but despite obstacles we still remained to strive. We owe it all to our coach, Toni Cradle. Without her many of our accomplishments wouldn't have occurred. Both the J.V. and Varsity basketball teams played well this year, and we wish them more victories in the future. We give thanks to: all of those who gave their support, all the girls who will remain on the squad and those who will move on, to our Junior Cheerleader Alyssa Shuman, and to all our fans! Out of all my four years of playing basketball at B.H.S. this probably has been the most unusual season. Plagued by injuries and sickness made it hard for us to utilize the talent that we all possessed. And yes, we all have talent despite what others might think. The season didn't go as we had hoped but never the less we had fun. Good luck to the future girls' basketball teams.

Your Captain,
Ukindra

Jenny — "What did you say?" "Which play was that?" We always knew you were not mute.

Val — A few more inches and you'll be there. "What shoe size is that?"

Jeanne — "Heal the world" "I don't believe you talked to her!!" "You're just too good!!"

Amy — "Your bangs are an environmental threat." "Keep shooting!!" "Take the three, take the three." "You're sweating now!!" "Three minutes of glory what did you expect?"

Sareh — "You're just playing too much, give someone else a chance!"

Emily — "Move down, why would you want to do something like that?"

Abby — "Just slap her!" "I understand where you're coming from, I feel the same way."

Irite — "Where's Irita???" Got to make that money, huh?

Lauren — "Keep shooting, that's the only way to go." "Is your nose alright?" "What about modeling?"

Tough season, huh? But, we made it through without losing too many of you little first year wrestlers (or, in Ian's case, big) The team's been improving from losing every match but one to winning about half Next year will be even tougher, but, with Scott's leadership, two great coaches, and the mouth, you'll pull through From those of us leaving, Ariel Strauss, Henry Gabriel, Eddie Gaffey, and Josh Rose remember, it's not how you play the game, it's whether you win or lose GOOD LUCK

Senior Tri-Captain Ariel Strauss

Ariel: I'll make weight tomorrow no sweat
Henry: Lover Boy
Scott. You know you've really lost it when you're with a girl and you start thinking about food
Zimmri. Pick it up, pick it up
Hakeem: Blah, blah, blah oh, I know this song . . blah, blah, blah
Phil: No really, I have been sick for the past three weeks.
Isaac: They call me Elastic-Man
Jesse: All right, this is how you wrestle a girl.
Joe: I've got the biggest nose.
Zack Smoking isn't entirely bad for your health
Ben: Just let someone else wrestle.
Gabriel: It's not my fault I'm so bad
Eddie: Yeah, of course I'm coming out for the team.
Sam: I don't mind being the sacrificial lamb.
Lauge: Hey, at least I tried
Seth: Honest guys, I didn't eat last night.
Nick: I have this condition, I have to constantly ask questions or I'll explode.
Ian: Froshman of the year.
Brendan: Luck of the Irish has got me this far.
Josh: I can eat five whole pizzas easy.

Over the course of the season we have seen great improvements on the part of all swimmers and divers. We all have Coach Chris Habberty and Assistant Coach Jim Locke Jr. to thank for helping each person to reach their goal and grow as individuals. The hard work, the long hours in the pool, paid off with a strong season record of 5-3. Furthermore, our spirit, exemplified by our undefeated home record continued a long-standing Brooklin tradition of camaraderie, respect and sportsmanship. We hope what has distinguished BHS's swimming this year will continue in the years to come.

Dear Sir, Son, Shorty, Dear, Curly, It, the Development team, and any other irrelevant children

How are you? We are fine. We just finished the best of our four years on the ski team The boys tied for the league championship in cross-country, the girls took second, and the downhill teams also had a stellar year, of course, with no thanks to the weather Upon looking back, we fail to see why we ran in six inches of snow during the supposed "Dry Land Training," or why we skied on six inches of water and grass. We also never thought that we would ever have a race cancelled due to too much snow We mean, we're the ski team, right? Of course, we couldn't have done it without our mentor/slave driver/child-loving coach, Scott "Never quote me" Butchart.

We sure will miss all of you, especially Dave "Soon to be bald" Bookston, Virgilio "I don't speak Spanish" Paniagua, Sam "The Dark One" Morjaria, Noah "Don't call me Pete Sampras" Budnick, Katie "Smiley" Manaras, and our other compatriots too numerous to mention. Other aspects we will miss will be the Wyly Brown Tabernacle Choir, the boys' cheerleading squad, Butch's love for Nate Spunt and his American car theory, "Butchercizes," tuck runs, Blue Hills french fries, and other such things potentially hazardous to our health. We leave you with a poem,

The ski season is done,
It's been a lot of fun,
You guys are number one,
Good luck next year — Siber and Wasserperson.

Brookline High Community Construction Program

SUMMER PROJECT, 1992

Brookline High School students, participating as construction trainees under the direction of Brookline High Industrial Arts Faculty, will renovate the town-owned property at 96 Grove Street. Run by the school department, this summer project establishes a cooperative relationship between the Brookline High Community Construction Program and the Town of Brookline Building Department. Town inspectors will certify that all work is performed in accordance with state and local codes and regulations.

The Drama Society Execs

are havin' a blast this year, and encourage all to participate in one of the spunkiest extra-curricular activities around: Drama.

Sarah Miller, Member at Large — Our favorite frolicking fun-loving Drama Bunny defies the denotation of her title by appearing trim, and destroys the connotation of her title by being a very able and hard-workin' exec. She first gained international fame with her brilliant interpretation of Lucy in Devotion School's Zapped! From Broadway. After being down with the drama scene at Brookline High for two years, she became an executive for the purpose of spreading Drama and Happiness throughout the school. She aspires to continue her education after High School in Compton, California.

Steven Klein, Secretary — Getting the role of Secretary in this year's committee is Steven's first big break onto the well-known Executive Troupe. After working within the Brookline High Drama Society for two years, reaching his goal of making the executive board was, and has been, very exciting for him. His theater training began at the Brimmer & May Nursery School where he was highly acclaimed in the one-line role of John in Peter Pan. From there he quickly progressed through the ranks of the Driscoll School while continuing his focus on theater . . . from school plays to local theater to dabbling in the professional world. He'd like to thank his friends and family and the little fat girl in Missouri who is the President and only member of his fan club.

Lauren Antler, Vice-President — Lauren's career in drama began at age four when she ran offstage crying from fright at Montessori Nursery. However, after her real debut as an ocean wave in Where the Wild Things Are — third grade — she has kindly never left the stage. Lauren is most proud of her role as Inez in No Exit. She would like to thank her fan club consisting of the mirror in her room, and her parents (who are known to commend her for her "stage presence" — "We Know You Were There") for being so supportive. In the future, Lauren doesn't want to be a proctologist.

Ron Avni, President — More than anything else, Ron loves his little doggie, Jazz, and misses his cute furry presence whenever away from home. That, and Iain's conviction that Ron is totally crazed, have been the driving forces behind Ron's urge to act and be with Drama People, who are, by definition, totally awesome. He has had a modest yet yummy amount of acting experience, starting in fourth grade in the Driscoll School production of The Life and Times of P. T. Barnum. He enjoys a somewhat obsessive relationship with Mary Mastandrea, his idol, and will refuse to graduate Brookline High without first receiving a kiss from Iain.

Ari Voukydis, Publicity — He surprised fans everywhere by ignoring any thoughts of retirement and making the executive board as a senior. Being the oldest member of the board has given Ari a great sense of pride, especially when the other execs come looking for advice from him. Ari's training began at Devotion School where he first began to shine as an all-around cool-ass drama person. He has managed to hold the record for most small parts played; admirers claim that he is continuously overlooked for the larger roles because he is so darn fabulous at playing the smaller ones. Others simply attribute it to the Cosmic Anti-Ari Force.

Graduates of the Class of 1993,

On behalf of the Brookline High School Alumni Association, I wish to congratulate each of you on your completion of studies and personal growth while at Brookline High School.

You now join over 20,000 alumni who are located worldwide and who with great pride and enthusiasm say, "I graduated from Brookline High."

Your experiences will be with you for a lifetime; friends, teachers, activities, the lunchroom and hallways will be forever ingrained in your memories.

You, the class of 1993, have the distinction of being the sesquicentennial class, marking 150 years of Brookline High School history. The anniversary celebration began in June of 1992 and will culminate when you receive your diplomas in June of 1993.

We in the Alumni Association look forward to your helping us to continue the unparalleled tradition of excellence associated with Brookline High School.

Welcome to the ranks of distinguished alumni!!

Best of luck in all your pursuits,

Barton Adler '60

HOW A COURSE IN HOME EC CAN HELP YOU PAY FOR COLLEGE.

No, not home economics. Brookline Savings Bank's Home Equity Loan.

It's a line of credit that lets you borrow as much as 75% of the equity in your owner-occupied house or condo, less the first mortgage.

Now it's easy to meet those big college bills. Using your line of credit is as simple as writing a check. And, it may be tax deductible.

Because a Home Equity Loan is secured by the equity in your home, the rate is only $1\frac{1}{2}$ points above the prime rate published in the Wall Street Journal.

Take a quick course in home equity at any Brookline Savings branch today. Our customer service reps have all the facts. And all qualified home-owners are sure to pass.

Go and catch a falling star,
Get with child a mandrake root,
Tell me where all past years are,
Or who cleft the devil's foot,
Teach me to hear mermaids singing,
Or to keep off envy's stinging,
And find
What wind
Serves to advance an honest mind.
— John Donne

Congratulations!
